Amanda Elliott has served in the office of economic development for Gilbert, Arizona in since 2012.

Prior to joining Gilbert, Amanda worked for Gilbane Building Company, a national real estate development and construction company. In her tenure at Gilbane, Amanda held a number of roles including Associate Manager of Business Development, National Sales Services Manager, and Marketing Manager. Some of her key achievements include reorganization of the Phoenix marketing department, transition of prospects into clients – thereby leading the Arizona office to surpassing its $2 million sales goal, and serving as a national marketing manager to develop and transform Gilbane’s marketing approach from a regional focus to a national focus.

Amanda worked as the Western Region Public Relations Manager for Barton Malow Company where she executed all aspects of the public relations efforts for the Western Region. She also worked at Turner Construction Company where she served in a number of roles including Marketing Coordinator and Marketing Assistant.

Amanda holds a Bachelor of Science in Marketing and a Certificate of International Business from Arizona State University. She is a member of numerous organizations including the Public Relations Society of America Phoenix Chapter where she previously served as a member of the Board of Directors from 2007 – 2010, University Relations Chair and Membership Chair and the Arizona Association of Economic Development (AAED) where she previously served as Chair of the Public Relations Committee and the Phoenix East Valley where she participates on the marketing/branding committee.

Amanda was awarded the AAED Economic Development Distinguished by Excellence for New Member of the Year in 2007 as well as the Gilbert Mayor’s Best in Class Award in 2013.
